

Web Privacy and Security Policy

You have entered the official Duplin County Government web site. Thank you for visiting us. The Duplin County Government is committed to protecting you privacy:

1. We will not collect personal information about you just because you visit this site.

When you visit our web site, we automatically collect and maintain statistical information from our site's data logs that concern network traffic flow and volume. This information consists of:

- a. The IP from which you access the Duplin County web site
- b. The date and time you access our site
- c. The pages you visit

2. We do not use cookies, a file placed on a visitor's hard drive that allows the web site to monitor the individual's use of the site.

No attempts are made to identify individual users.

3. Duplin County Government uses the web pages to provide information and services to you.

These web pages may also offer you the opportunity to ask questions, request information, or provide comment. Use of this option is voluntary and may require further information from you , such as an email address. We will only use information from submitted forms, email messages, and any other information you provide for the reasons you provided it.

4. We will not share the information you give us with anyone unless required by law. We also will not sell your information.

5. If you are sending us an email, please be aware: Pursuant to the Freedom of Information-Privacy Acts (FOIPA) and North Carolina General Statutes Chapter 132, Public Records, the electronic mail message and any attachments hereto, as well as any electronic mail message(s) that may be sent in response to it are considered public record and as such are subject to request and review by anyone at any time.

It is up to you if you want to assume the risk of an unauthorized person learning your email address or any personal information you provide. If you have any question, please e-mail erich@duplincounty.org.
